Previous Complaints

The trees around the light opposite Libanus chapel need trimming - Cllr. Fitzpatrick has passed this onto Lyn Parry

Street Cleaning - passed on to Brent Campbell.

Flooding Llanspyddid - Cllr Hill will be presenting a graph from the weather station to Powys CC. There is a meeting with Roger Williams M.P. on 30th January.

Speed limits Llanspyddid/bus shelter - No reply from Powys CC. There has been another accident there recently. Mrs Powell has had a reply from Kirsty Williams A.M. acknowledging our letter, she will write to Cllr. John Powell Cabinet member for Highways.

Residents want to keep the bus shelter where it is, there is a meeting in Llanspyddid on Sunday. Cllr. Hill had some information regarding locations of accidents from Dyfed Powys Police but it was not much help. Mrs Powell suggested asking the police to a meeting. There is still the question of who owns the ground the bus shelter is built on. Cllr. Keylock will email Mrs Powell a copy of an old conveyance from Welsh Water.

- b. Cllr. Hill reported that Brecon Town Band will be playing in Tenby on 18th and 19th July and a lot of local people are interested in running a coach trip.

The next meeting will be held at Libanus Chapel on Tuesday 17th February 2015
7.30 p.m

This concluded the meeting, which the Chairman duly closed.
