2016/41

Libanus Church

A meeting was held at the end of March with Libanus Hall Trust, details of what the committee have done had been sent out but there was a poor turnout. A resident has volunteered to do some sketches of what the project could look like. There could be a possibility of incorporating a shop in the local pub when the current tenants leave.

2016/42

Baddegai Trust

Cllr. Cravos has written to the clerks of the other community councils involved and had one reply who is having similar problems regarding the criteria for distributing the funds. It was agreed to distribute the money in hand to residents on the original list as it has not been done for 2 years. Cllr Keylock will explain to them that we are uncertain of what will happen in the future. Cllr. Smith volunteered to go and see Rev. Wilding to ask where the money comes from.
