Cllr. Baker reported on a Road Safety meeting he recently attended on the 11th January organised by One Voice Wales. It was attended by the Police Commissioner, Chief Superintendent of Powys, Sgt. Dillon South Powys, Tim Barnett Trunkroad Agency and Tony Haines Powys Highways. They each gave a 15 minute presentation on priorities. It was reported that 20 m.p.h. will be the speed limit outside all schools. There are 70 community speedwatch groups in Powys and they are looking for more volunteers. Powys has 10 traffic officers, their next operation will be aimed at motor cyclists. They receive intelligence from other areas and dash cam evidence will be used.

Tim Barnes Trunkroad Agency reported on street lighting ,pavements and road safety information from Welsh Government. Their community safety programme looks at speed limits every 3 years, they are also looking at blackspots and safe routes to schools.
