2022/85Declaration of Interest

None recorded

2022/86County Borough Council

- a. Cllr. Ratcliffe reported on the recent meeting at Pont yr Daf car park. The National Trust understand the concerns regarding the £7.50 parking charge but it is in line with other areas and they do not think it will increase parking on verges. The money will be put back into improving the path. Cllr Ratcliffe suggested a meeting with the Police and Powys CC early in the new year as parking on the verges will have to be monitored.
- b. Cllr. Ratcliffe reported on Cllr. A Cartwright's report.
- c. Cllr. Ratcliffe explained why he abstained from voting on the Mid- Wales Air Ambulance He had asked for it to be delayed as it needed a proper debate and to have all the facts first.
- d. Powys CC budget report.

2022/87Matters Arising

- a. Speed Limit – nothing to report
- b Gate at Libanus Playground – Cllr. Woods will contact Steve Butcher Powys CC
Cllr. Baker agreed to check the playground for insurance purposes.
- c. New meeting venue – The Tai'r Bull is unavailable. Cllr. Rayner will ask the mountain centre again.
- d. The fence behind the Tai'r Bull is falling over – Cllr. R Harris will have a look at it.

2022/88Correspondence

- a. Powys CC Looking for Councils who have declared a nature emergency
- b. NRW Resilient Community Grant.
- c. Welsh Government Nature Networks Fund
